Saraswati Puja Celebration – Detailed Programme Report

Date: 23 January 2026

Venue: S. B. Pandey Sanatan Teachers Training College

Saraswati Puja was celebrated with great devotion, reverence, and enthusiasm at S. B. Pandey Sanatan Teachers Training College, Rehla on 23 January 2026. The occasion witnessed active participation from the Principal, faculty members, non-teaching staff, and students, who gathered together to worship Goddess Saraswati, the deity of knowledge, wisdom, learning, and arts. The entire campus was immersed in a peaceful and spiritual atmosphere.

The programme commenced in the morning with traditional rituals performed according to Vedic customs. The idol of Goddess Saraswati was beautifully decorated. The Principal offered floral tributes and performed the worship, followed by faculty members, staff, and students. This collective participation reflected the institution's deep respect for education and knowledge.

Following the rituals, students presented a melodious Saraswati Vandana, which filled the environment with devotion and serenity. Chanting of mantras and prayers was conducted for the intellectual growth, academic excellence, and bright future of the students.

The cultural session included devotional songs, poetry recitations, and short cultural performances by students. These presentations highlighted Indian cultural values and emphasized the importance of education and moral development. The programme provided a meaningful platform for students to showcase their talents and creativity.
