The first session was conducted by Dr. N.K. Agrawal, Pro Vice-Chancellor, Bhaba University, Bhopal, who elaborated on the role of teachers in nurturing values among students. This was followed by an eminent lecture by Dr. Bijay Singh, Director General, Sanatan Group of Education, who highlighted the practical aspects of value-based education.

During the interactive Question & Answer session, Miss Chouhan, a student of N.N. Ghosh College, raised an important question regarding whether the National Education Policy often remains limited to books and how it can be implemented at the ground level.

Responding to this, Dr. Ranju Prajapati explained that any new policy takes time to be implemented effectively and can be brought into practice gradually through consistent efforts. Supporting this view, Dr. S.K. Pandey, DSW, Nilamber-Pitamber University, stated that whenever a new system is introduced, initial challenges are natural, but with continuous effort and commitment, successful implementation is always possible.

After a short break, the second session was conducted by Dr. Siddharth Jain, Principal, Apolo College Dug (CG), who discussed innovative teaching methodologies. This was followed by an eminent lecture by Dr. (Mrs.) Sudha Singh, Dean, Academics & Research, Sanatan Group of Education, who emphasized ethics and academic integrity.

The programme concluded with a Vote of Thanks delivered by Mr. Annad Kumar Yadav, Assistant Professor, SBPSTTC Rehala, Palamu.

A total of 250 participants registered for the webinar, and all participants were provided with E-Certificates after successful completion. The webinar witnessed active participation from Principals, Assistant Professors, and students of various colleges affiliated with Nilamber-Pitamber University, making the event highly successful and impactful.

Conclusion

The webinar proved to be highly beneficial in enhancing awareness about value-based education and the crucial role of teachers in implementing the vision of NEP 2020. It successfully achieved its objectives and highlighted the institution's commitment towards academic excellence and holistic development.
